NEW FONDUE NOT BOURGEOIS AT ALL

CONTENT:

Imagine the perfect Dinner: your family or your best friends gather around a large pot of a sizzling savory broth or hot oil to dip a limitless variety of ingredients into it. What have you got? Fondue, of course! This dish was originated by the Swiss and French people, long-stemmed forks with bread were dipped into melted cheese. However the name "fondue" has been generalized to a variety of other dishes where a variety of food is dipped into a hot liquid, such as hot oil, broth or melted chocolate.

Now with this new title you can explore a whole new world beyond the familiar ingredients and recipes. For the new or experienced fondue maker, NEW FONDUE provides the ultimate innovative inspiration.
